

I would not like to lose K-LOVE if my city or any across the nation, which I enjoy listening to when I travel. Never in my entire life have I heard a more inspiring station. In fact, I never thought I'd listen primarily to Christian music, but KLOVE is life changing.

No other radio station, Christian or secular, has this appeal and ability to connect with such a broad audience. The world needs this type of programming!